SMITH RECORD

By J.A. Helman

Introduction by Leo Lutz

April 27, 2007

This is a transcription of the handwritten Smith Record done by James A. Helman dated June 18, 1896. Helman used this book to chronicle the history and list the descendants of George and Christiana Smith who, in 1746, were among the first settlers of that part of Frederick County, Maryland, near the present town of Emmitsburg.

Many of the early citizens of that area migrated to Stark County, Ohio, between 1807 and 1814 just a few short years after 1803 when Ohio was admitted to the Union as the 17th state. Others stayed behind to continue their families in Maryland and Pennsylvania. Other Maryland and Pennsylvania families followed this first wave in succeeding years. That is why one will find many family names from the area in and around Northern Frederick County, Maryland, to be identical with Stark County, Ohio, names in Plain Township. The early Smith descendants who left Maryland first settled in Pennsylvania in 1817. In 1825 they moved on to Plain Township in Stark County. These early Smiths soon made contact with the already settled Maryland and Pennsylvania families who they had known or knew about and continued their family ties.

James Helman, a resident of Emmitsburg, Maryland, was very interested in the history of his area and previously wrote a similar book on the Troxell family. In 1906 he then wrote History of Emmitsburg, Md.

Since Helman's work was done in his own hand, some of the spellings of places and names are difficult to read. Therefore, where there is a doubt as to the spelling of names, dates or other information, brackets are used to indicate the best guess or multiple guesses, i.e. [Susanne, Susan, Susanna]. If the correct spelling or dates could be reliably ascertained from other sources, those entries are indicated by curly brackets, i.e. {1840}. Where misspellings and errors in capitalizations and punctuations occur in the text portion, if the meaning is evident, the original errors are left to replicate the original flavor of the document as much as possible. And, perhaps some of the old grammatical rules and customs were different then than they are now. However, liberty was taken in some cases to add punctuation and spelling changes to make the document more readable.

Most punctuation corrections have been made to clarify sentence structure according to modern grammatical conventions.

Double parentheses (( )) are used to clarify abbreviations that may not be evident and to make notations that were not in the document. I used these where there was an area that could be misinterpreted and to clarify confusing items.

It was not my intention to correct items or add facts to the document. I wanted to maintain the integrity of the document as it was written and as I found it. Other than an occasional curly bracketed item {---} there was little editing done, even if I was reasonably certain that a date, name or other fact was probably in error. I did not try to verify children or spellings of names. I know several are in error, or nicknames were used that were not the given name of the person. It appears Helman, as well as those who made later additions, often used nicknames for people. Published family trees and official records mostly use the given names for family members, which may be different than some of the names listed here. An example: on page 242 the name “Nolie” Martin appears. In one U.S. Census she is identified as “Enola”. It will be up to others to make their own corrections and additions to their own records as they wish.

Scanned copies of the hand pen-and-ink drawings were inserted to face to the right side for easier viewing. In the original book some of the drawings faced left.

In the document, references are made to the town of “Emmitsburg”. For historical accuracy, it should be pointed out that there was no town called Emmitsburg until at least 1785. The Emmitsburg Historical Society states: “The first written mention of a town or the name of Emmitsburg is in a deed dated August 12th, 1785 conveying 35 acres from Samuel Emmit to his son William "... wherein the lots of a new town of Emmitsburg are laid out." The town was not incorporated until 1825. Therefore, it is assumed that Helman, in using the town name of Emmitsburg when referring to events prior to 1785, was doing so to place locations in relation to the town of Emmitsburg as his generation knew it.

Although Helman researched and wrote the book, it was taken to many family reunions in Canton, Ohio, where new information was recorded over the years by later generations. Therefore, even though Helman apparently finished the work in 1896 and died in 1917, many entries have been made after those dates by unknown family members at various times. Smith family reunions went on for many years, starting in 1871 and continuing well into the twentieth century when this book was brought out for family members to add information. Entries that are presumed to be made by others and are obviously made after Helman finished the document are entered in italics.

Key to conventions used in this transcription:

- [-----] = Best guess(es) at spelling or spellings that were not legible.
- {-----} = Word, name or date not legible but could reasonably be confirmed from outside sources.
- ((-----)) = Clarification by me. Item is not in the original.
- “ * ” = Asterisk indicates probable misspelling or unknown spellings (word is too faint or not clear enough to make a guess).
- Italics* = Entries presumed to be made by others after the base document was finished.

Helman wrote the document in a legal size ledger book. There was a column divider on the left side. This transcription maintains that column and the divisions that were originally used.

The original book is in the possession of Kenneth D. Smith, 241 Nassau St. NE, East Canton, Ohio, 44703. Through his generosity, he loaned his copy and the original to the Wm. McKinley Presidential Library and Museum in Canton, Ohio, to be recopied. Since the original was in fragile condition, the copies were made from his one copy. A great deal of thanks goes to Janet Metzger, Librarian, and her staff for the work done to copy and help preserve this record.

This transcription will follow the page numbering used by Helman. Therefore, there may be some pages that appear incomplete. There will be those who spot misinterpretations of Helman's or other's entries (spellings, dates or facts). Please notify me of any of these obvious corrections.

Helman used a unique method to organize the book. At the top of many pages will be a large capital letter; i.e. L, G, D, etc. Those letters indicate which of George and Christiana Smith's original children (and their descendants) that section refers. Example: Section D lists the children and the descendants of Daniel Smith.

The original page numbering has some gaps that cannot be explained. It could be that Helman left blank pages to be completed by others later as children were born, children were married, and new information obtained. It appears this was intended to be a "living document". It is still possible that a few of the missing page numbers could be the result of missing pages.

Pages 42 and 43 are blank pages

Pages 132-220 are missing and are presumed to be intentionally left open for later additions.

Pages 227-232 are missing, perhaps intentionally.

Pages 253 and 254 were inserted by others and are included and numbered here at the end of Helman's original work.

The original book was not indexed. I have included an Index at the end to help identify the location of names in the book. Place names are also included in the Index except for the most common locations such as Emmitsburg, Canton, and Frederick County. Those locations may be found on numerous pages. To identify each page where a reference is made to those locations would not be helpful.

The page numbers at the top of each page are there to replicate the numbers found on the document. The page numbers at the bottom of each page, although the same number as on the top, are part of the "footer" section used by the word processing program to correctly tie in the Index listings to the correct page. That is why there are two page numbers on each page.

It should be made clear that Helman's book is not a definitive work on the genealogy of the Smith family. He relied on records provided by others in a day before telephones, copy machines, microfilm, the Internet or even the common typewriter. He was in a difficult position to verify the information he was getting. Much of the information he received was probably hand written and sent to him through the mail without the benefit of his interviewing the contributor. It is likely he would have also had a hard time interpreting some of the handwriting, thus promulgating errors in spelling and dates. The entries made by others after Helman finished the base document most certainly were not corroborated and we are left at the mercy of the accuracy of the authors of those entries.

I am related to the Smiths on my Mother's side. My grandmother was Loretta Emma Smith and my Mother was Blema (Snider) Lutz, both found on page 48.

A copy of this transcription, as well as a copy of the original work by Helman is posted on the Emmitsburg Historical Society website at (<http://emmitsburg.net/history/>). A copy of both documents is also on file at the the Stark County District Library, Genealogy Department (Canton, Ohio).

Many thanks go to my dear wife, Wilma, for her typing and proofreading of this work. Also, this work could not have been done without the enthusiastic help from Kenneth Smith, and his lending the original document for this research. And, thanks to Michael Hillman at the Emmitsburg Historical Society for his local research and for publishing it on the Society's website so that many others may benefit from this historical document.

Having spent several years in compiling dates and necessary evidence to write a record of the most extensive family in Md., that of the Troxels, I found myself inclined to take up the Smith family to which I am allied, through the marriage of my grandmother, Mary Barbara Martin to George Smith the Third. It was an undertaking in the first family named. As I had my Grandfather Smiths family, it remained for me to add the other members of the Smiths and their descendents. To write the history of a family when all the generations have kept correct accounts of the births, deaths, marriages and circumstances connected, is an easy thing to perform, but one that dates back thirty years before the Declaration of Independence was signed . When the land upon which our ancestors settled and took out patents from the English government and no record of the early days of the family, is quite another thing. This difficulty I encountered in the Smith family.

My chief motive in writing this record was to give future generations the true position we accept from our earliest history in this country. My business relations prevented me from visiting places where evidences could have been obtained, thereby necessitating me to do most of the work by correspondence. In many cases it required several letters before I obtained the information wanted. On the whole, I made out fairly well as the contents of the record will speak for itself.

Record of the Smith family, George and Christiana Smith	The bones of Livy were one of Phidias' greatest treasures, while the king of Naples regarded the Historian's arm a priceless relic. Let it not be thought that this History of the Smith family leapt into being like Athena from the head of Zeus. To a mind like Shakespeare, says Cowden Clarke, the acquaintance of knowledge of all kinds was like inhaling the air he breathed, a sheer vital necessity. Cannot our minds receive the information here given in reference to the Smith family, the same, and rest our pedigree right here. Clearly then it may be assumed that the history is correct. I am not aware that any one has dived into the Archives and brought forth anything older than I have found, or lay claims to anything anterior to these facts. Many are the families who know less of their personal origin than they do of other people. Reason assigned their parents did not think it worth while to keep a record. Do not, do likewise. Often it is better to screen the facts by such a course, but who today would not delight to have a record of their family, (with any irregularities that might dim its luster), from its arrival in this country, even if they cannot penetrate into the land of nativity, from which its founders came. It is pleasant to dwell upon the theme, pleasant to talk with those who are interested in the subject. But oh what a chill comes over us when we find

one that has no interest in the past of their family, which is always full and rich with reminiscence.

In taking up the history of the Smith family we are called to a halt upon its very threshold. No date of arrival in this country, no positive evidence of any kind as to where George and Christiana Smith came from or when they came to the Colonies.

March 21st, 1746 they settled on the tract of land known as Cattail Branch in Frederick County Maryland. As tradition serves well the occasion we will make the best use of it. Families are not born in a day. One by one they appear upon the stage of action. Therefore it is easy to keep a correct record if we are so disposed. Had the subject of this narrative, George Smith but kept an account of the place of his birth, time of his and his wife's birth, his wife's name, then his children could have transmitted this information, along with the transpiring occurrences as the years rolled by, interspersing the record with many incidents that we would today heartily enjoy, and today what a boon this relic of the bye gone would be, and we would bless his name for his great forethought. George Smith and wife as tradition says are buried in the old Toms Creek Grave Yard, the burying ground up on the hill.

I found about the middle of this burying ground a stone inscribed, which marks the grave of one John Smith, son of John and Catherine Smith, who died May 15th 1783, Age six months and 21 days. This elder John Smith was the son of George Smith the first, subject of this narrative. This may be safely taken as distinguishing the spot in the cemetery where the family interments had been previously and afterward made this stone stand also in a row of graves. Some with rough stones without inscriptions, some with only initials in German.

In this row no doubt lie the bodies of the Smith ancestors. Christiana and her husband Michael Rowe are in the same row. Long since has the sentence been fulfilled, Earth to Earth, Ashes to Ashes, dust to dust. Although no carved stones mark their resting places. Yet we know they rest in peace, and we know that around that spot more than a century ago stood loving children with weeping eyes and mourning hearts, listening to the comforting words as they fell upon the air from the lips of the Man of God.

Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord. There in that quiet rural cemetery at Toms Creek Church they sleep.

At one corner of the cemetery stood the first church erected in this locality, it like all early churches was built of logs. Here the Smiths worshiped, here they are buried. From the first rays of light shining upon the history of the Smith family, no definite conclusion can be arrived at in reference to the birth of George Smith the founder of the family. We know where he lived and died. If it were not for the very slight clues, which have been diligently investigated until results worthy of communicating have been arrived at

First Historical period through which he passed.	but for the small blue stone that marks the resting place of the child of John, son of John, we could not tell definitely where the founders body reposes. Oh that his sons had had the spirit they should have possessed, and marked the graves of their parents, the mist partly cleared away by conjecture would wholly disappear, and the light revealing birth and death would solve the mystery. George Smith owned the tract of land now comprising the farms of David &amp; Joseph Ohler, Adam Bowers, John Hockensmith, W<sup>m</sup> P. Gardner, Jacob Ohler and John Delaplane. His dwelling stood 203 yds east of the W<sup>m</sup> Gardners house. The well is still open. George and Christiana Smith came to Maryland and took out a patent for 100 acres of Land on Cattail Branch March 21st 1746. August 11th 1752 he had surveyed 498 acres adjoining and received a patent for same the 8th day of April 1754. August 19th 1755 he sold to John Six 100 acres. June 17th 1761 he sold to George Garne 2 acres. June 17th 1761 he sold to Henry Younger 25 acres. At his death he had 371 acres to divide amongst his children. When G. Smith came to Maryland it was during the war known as King George War commencing in 1744 and lasting until 1748. It was after the death of Charles VI of Austria and the accession of Maria Theresa that precipitated the war of Austrian succession in Europe, the effects were felt in America in the struggle

between the French and the Indian allies and our English colonists.

The year G. Smith came to Maryland 1746 there was a rumor of a grand descent of the French upon New England resulting in the capture of Fort Massachusetts at Williamstown, and some incursions in New York. This rumor broke up an agreed plan by New England, N.Y., N.J., Md, Va, & Pa for the invasion of Canada which was to have been conducted in 1746.

Such was the perilous times when our ancestors came to Maryland. They may have resided elsewhere in this country and were married before they came to their pioneer home. In all probability they were not over 25 years of age as their first child was born August 13th 1748, one year and four months after he took out the first patent, allowing near two years between each birth will complete the period of child bearing.

From this estimate of births, he would have four children if boys able to bear arms in 1776 and one we know, George the 2nd who had a son born in 1775, Daniel, who stands at the head of the Ohio family. We do not know that any other of them served in the army, but we do know they were of the age to go, besides Genl Washington passed through Taneytown seven miles east on his way to New York and some joined his army.

From the oldest son living of the descendents of Geo Smith, I can get no possitive

George Smith the 1st	information to warrant me in saying any of them were in the Revolutionary Army, although have been told, that the Grandmother did talk about the war. There were home guards, and there young Smiths may have been of the number. In one instance I know of a farmer not more than two miles south who helped guard the Brittish that surrendered under Cornwallis at Yorktown, from our neighborhood to Chambersburg Pa where they were taken. It may be some of the Smiths were in service there. had eleven children, four boys and seven girls, names as follows, <table data-bbox="470 808 1104 976"><tr><td>George</td><td>Eva</td><td>Charlotte</td></tr><tr><td>Jacob</td><td>Elizabeth</td><td>Barbara</td></tr><tr><td>John</td><td>Christiana</td><td>Margaret</td></tr><tr><td>Christian</td><td>Mary</td><td></td></tr></table>	George	Eva	Charlotte	Jacob	Elizabeth	Barbara	John	Christiana	Margaret	Christian	Mary

Note	The colonial house was 30 by 40 feet. Marks showing the spot and size still remain. A walnut tree has grown up at the edge of the foundation measuring a foot in diameter. A well not far off still remains open with a plentiful supply of water. This he digged. George the first died in 1793. A copy of his will will be found in back of Record. Supposing him to have been 26 years old when he came to Md and living from 1746 to 1793, 47 years added to the 26 when he came he must have been 73 years old when he died. His wife died before him, how long is not known. The name George was continued in the family as follows, George the first named

Children of Geo the 2nd	his eldest son George born August 13, 1748. George the 2nd named a son George. George the 3rd whose youngest child was born 28 days after his fathers death and named George Lewis, born 1817, and as George the 4th remained a bachelor it only remains to say the name of George ceased in our line. A remarkable longevity except in two cases is attached to the family as follows, <table border="0"> <tr> <td>George the first—73</td> <td></td> </tr> <tr> <td>George " 2nd —75</td> <td>Margaret his wife 69</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Christiana 79</td> <td>Michael Rowe her husband 81</td> </tr> </table> No definite dates of remaining children of George 1st <table border="0"> <tr> <td>Daniel 81</td> <td>Ann Maria his wife 68</td> </tr> <tr> <td>George 37</td> <td>Mary Barbara " " 80</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Susan 64</td> <td>Jacob Rowe her husband 82</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Lewis 69</td> <td>Elizabeth his first wife 37</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Joseph 37</td> <td>Elizabeth his wife 68</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Elizabeth 79</td> <td>Henry Wortz her husband 80</td> </tr> </table> The family from its earliest history has been a church going people. It has been scattered like the leaves in autumn. Some so far that recognition is impossible. They can be found North, South, East and West. Therefore we confine the direct record to the descendents of George the 2nd with the hope that it will be added to as the years go by, and accessions by births or marriage are made, and reductions by death occur. In a deed made May 21st 1804 by Christian Smith and his wife Catharine to Robert Flemming of the farm now owned by W.P. Gardner for 400 pounds, containing 139 ¼ acres of land it is stated that he inherited this land from his father George Smith in a will	George the first—73		George " 2 nd —75	Margaret his wife 69	Christiana 79	Michael Rowe her husband 81	Daniel 81	Ann Maria his wife 68	George 37	Mary Barbara " " 80	Susan 64	Jacob Rowe her husband 82	Lewis 69	Elizabeth his first wife 37	Joseph 37	Elizabeth his wife 68	Elizabeth 79	Henry Wortz her husband 80

2nd historical period through which George and Christiana Smith passed.	dated May 8th 1793. Now we have ascertained when he died, or near it, and are prepared to state that his wife died before him, as her name is not mentioned in the will. It is found in Liber G.M. No. 2; folio 489 one of the land records of Frederick County, Ma. The real estate was willed to be divided in equal acres as laid off to them in the Testators lifetime to George, John and Christian. To his daughter Eva 20 acres. Be it remembered Mason and Dixons line was not run until 1760. This Frederick County line extended from this Penn. line to the Potomac river until it came East to the boundary of Baltimore County line, then to Penn line again, containing what is now Washington, Montgomery, Carroll and Frederick counties, Fredericktown the county seat. When George Washington and Benjamin Franklin were visiting in Fredericktown, Franklin was the Postmaster General under the Colonial government. No doubt our ancestors, the subject of this narrative, seen both of them. At one time after the defeat of Braddock, scarcely a family remained in the county or west of it as they fled to Baltimore for fear of being massacred. In July 1755 the same year John Six purchased the 100 acres of land from G. Smith, the house of Mr. Williams in this county was attacked by the Indians and twelve of his family killed. After Braddocks defeat a party were fleeing to Fort Cumberland where 15 of them were killed, only three escaped. One a boy was scalped,

	left for dead, but revived and made his way to the Fort. Such was the perilous times these early settlers passed through. The county raised a number of troops and pursued the savages but got there too late to punish them. They remained to protect the survivors. This warfare continued. Small parties of Indians penetrated the quiet settlement. Their audacity increased with their success when a small party made their way even to the neighborhood of Emmitsburg and assailed the settlement, after shooting a man by the name of Alexander M<sup>c</sup>Keasy in his own door, escaped without loss. This warfare went on until Geo Washington said there was but two families in the whole Settlement of Conococheague in Maryland. In 1756 the people were advised between Conococheague and Fredericktown to assemble, which they did. Col Cresop at the head of 100 men of courage and skill, known as the Red Caps, overtook the Indians, routed and slaughtered some of them. In June they defeated another band all along the Monocacy tho people fled. From this historic fact we conclude that George Smith was in the midst of the fray. He may have been one of the gallant men that pursued the red skins and punished them. If he was not one of them he was cognizant of all that was going on for his Residence was only 4 miles from Emmitsburg and 25 miles from Fredericktown.

The first resistance of the Stamp Act was at Annapolis Md. when a merchant of that town Zacharias Hood a native of Maryland brought with him from England a cargo of goods, together with the Obnoxious Stamps. When he arrived at Annapolis the ferment reached its height. The people gathered in crowds at the dock, determined to prevent his landing. One outbreak ensued in which one of the number had his leg broken and Hood at the very seat of government was compelled to draw off from the shore and effect a landing clandestinely elsewhere.

The effigy of a stamp distributor was mounted on a one horse cart with sheets of paper in its hands and paraded through the streets amidst execrations of the crowds, while bells tolled continuously a solemn knell. The procession marching to the hill tied the effigy to the whipping post and bestowed upon it nine and thirty lashes which the crowd humorously called giving the Mosaic law to the Stamp act. It was then hung upon a gibbet erected for the purpose, a tar barrel placed under it and set on fire, when it ignited and at length fell into the blaze below and was consumed. Similar was the exhibition of the people at Baltimore, Fredericktown and other places.

Hoods punishment did not stop with his degradation. No one would buy his goods. The populace threatened tear down his house. At last they threatened him with personal vengeance and violence. At last he fled from the province, and did not stop until he reached New York.

The people determined no stamp officer should escape. He was seized and given the alternative of resigning his office or being conducted back to Maryland. He yielded and was set at liberty.

While the two houses at Annapolis were disputing to pay the claims of all equally deserving whose demands had been included in the bill, the lower house agreed to all but the clerks of the council, and refused to separate the journal. A warm controversy ensued, in the meanwhile all claims concerned were postponed.

The people in the Western part of the State were interested, and there the deepest feeling was aroused.

At Fredericktown they gathered in force, about 400 men armed with rifles and tomahawks proceeded to elect and declare their intention to march to Annapolis and settled the dispute between the two parties.

The Frederick county court had the high honor of first deciding in a legal manner the unconstitutionality of the stamp act. This decision was received with joy and the people hastened to celebrate so important an event. A festival took place in Fredericktown on the 30th of November 1765. The Sons of Liberty in funeral procession in honor of the death of the Stamp act, marched through the streets bearing a coffin on which was inscribed, The Stamp Act expired of a Mortal Stab received from the genius of Liberty in Frederick County Court November 1765, Aged 22 days.

The late Hood was chief mourner in effigy and the whole affair ended merrily in a ball. Think you our Ancestor was deaf and dumb to all that was going on in Fredericktown. We have no revelation, that he was there, but we do not for an instant think all this patriotism was being manifested at Fredericktown and the people throughout the county dumb to it all. Not likely. Conjecture George Smith and some neighbors preparing for a horseback ride there, to be one of 400 to go to Annapolis, or one of the number in procession celebrating the death of the Stamp Act. This might easily be. We will give him credit for being there, knowing he was a resident of the County.

In Hagerstown a man named Park had in his possession a chest of Tea. He was compelled to burn it in the public square and then walk bareheaded through the streets, holding a lighted torch in each hand.

Think all this was going on and George Smith know nothing about it. These acts were enough to create a popular patriotic sentiment in the hearts of every lover of liberty.

It was the expression in a wonderful way of a determined people which worked itself out more fully at the display of endurance at Valley Forge, and at last, ended with the victory at Yorktown.

We have no record that George Smith took any active part in these conflicts, his situation might have been such as to preclude him from it. All could not go. Some must remain at home to till the soil, beside there are other considerations that keep men from entering the army during a war. In this case the ancestor of the Smith family was surrounded by a large family, (some small children) upon whom everything depended. Houses separated by long distances, and liable at anytime to be assassinated by the red skins. This consideration was enough to deter men in the rural districts, while in the more populous sections patriotism prompted more to go, and forgo the trials and privations of a Soldiers life. Patriotism knows no bound, therefore these things may all have been endured by a ready response and a faithful performance of duty by George Smith in the year 1765.

Who that has lived through the stirring times of the Civil War, but realizes what it is day by day, to hear Soul Stirring news. First come the cry another great battle, then the longing desire to know the results. What rejoicing when victory is announced. Such was

	the formative period through which our ancestors passed. When in slow succession came the news of the battles during the revolutionary War, vivid was his memory of the first Congress that assembled in New York in 1765. What comments throughout the land upon the Boston Tea party. A culmination of the brave acts of the Maryland resistance of the Stamp act in 1765. Then the news came slow, as the transmission was in those days presumably by one repeating it to all others through the districts. For the earliest printed paper in Maryland was the Baltimore Gazette 1773, and no doubt the paper was confined to the city proper only. We are told the first printed newspaper in the United States was published in New York City, September 25th, 1775. So any information regarding the battles during the Revolutionary War had to be communicated either by Couriers on horse back or by the repetition of news from mouth to mouth. The burning of Norfolk in 1776, the battles of Lexington, Bunker Hill, Trenton, Princeton, the evacuation of Boston by the British all in 1776, six events that happened during that year, any of which was calculated to arouse the feelings of the people of the land. Then in 1777 the British fleet is seen in

the Chesapeake Bay. Wonder you that the people were aroused.

Let a foreign fleet now appear there and quick as the lightening flash would the news fly from one end of the land to the other, and to arms, to arms need not be said. For as with an impulse as deeply seated as our nature, there would be an Army ready to do battle for our Country and drive the foes from our shores.

This Spirit we would manifest is only that of the spirit of 1776, inherited from the men of that day. Think you George Smith was void of it. No, I repeat it No.

Then in 1780 the battle of Springfield, in 1781 that dark day when the treason of Benedict Arnold was discovered, and the execution of Andre. What surmisings as to who else was a traitor, how suspicion must have rested upon many others. In 1781 Richmond was burned. July 12, 1781 Maryland ratified the Articles of Confederation and perpetual union.

I will step back a decade or two to observe that when George Washington was born George Smith was a boy 12 years old.

Anterior to Washington who is called the father of his country, we were here in the person of an Ancestor, and our claims to fatherhood are like with Washington. Priority in land is not a whit better in one family than in another, neither is birth.

I will rest the Historical and Traditional record of the Smith family with these lines and say, Ought we to blush to own our ancestry. No never, but grateful that we date back to the time when men of superior minds and will crossed the surging waves in search of homes when peace and plenty abounded and liberty of conscience and religion could be obtained. They gained the port of safety, they lived through the perils of the days that tried mens hearts, and saw established on these shores a government as Abram Lincoln said, Of the People, by the People and for the People. Human life flows on like a river to me, and perhaps to you, also, whoever you may be that will read these lines in the future. The sun is beginning to slope toward the west, and we approach the evening of our days.

Life is immeasurably richer and fuller than it was, fuller of experience, of knowledge, and of feeling. There is less glitter in the prospects before us, less effect, (as the artist would say). There are no brilliant lights, no somber shadows. A mellow glow blends the scene before us with harmony. We recognize its beauty and feel the touch of melancholly which give that beauty its impressiveness. These ideas are common to you, to me, and to all men

Items	Notes A writer in a recent publication says “The settlement of the Germans in Western Maryland in Colonial times was undoubtedly an important factor in the development and history of our state. They not only increased the numbers of our inhabitants, but brought new industry and arts, intelligence and learning, indomitable perseverance and energy, but above all, sturdy arms, an immense working capacity and frugal simple habits. They brought with them their Schoolteachers and Pastors and one of their first acts was to erect a Schoolhouse and have their children instilled in the principal of Christianity and the useful arts of life. From them have sprung many illustrious men, who rendered our nation great service in time of war and peace, in the councils of the Nation on the judicial bench, in Schools and Colleges and in every other department of life. They turned the Wilderness of Frederick County of the year 1735 into a blooming garden, so that in the year 1790 Frederick County was the largest wheat growing County in the United States.” The last census gave Frederick County, Maryland and Champaign County, Ill. the credit of being the greatest grain growing counties in the U.S., their average being highest. So Fr. C. has held the standard to the mark of 1790.

The first Lutheran and Reformed Congregation formed in Maryland were organized in Frederick County, that of Monocacy 10 miles South of Creagerstown, and ten miles from Frederick. This was in the year 1734. The route of travel from Lancaster County Pa to the Virginia Settlement was once an Indian trail, a route for pack horse travel and Missionaries, extending across the territory now York and Adams Co Pa, to a point on the Monocacy river near the boundary line of the province of Maryland and Pennsylvania and thence to the Potomac river, crossing the Blue or South Mountain through what was and is now Crampton's Gap. It was by this route that about 1729 the first Germans drifted into Maryland. It is said that they thus came as early as 1710 to 1712 and settled near the Monocacy river and between 1732 and 1734 built the first German Church in Maryland. It was situated on the west side of the river.

In 1739 by order of the Lancaster County Court a road was built from Wrights Ferry, (now Wrightsville) to Maryland line, a distance of 35 miles and thence by an act of the Maryland Assembly it was continued to the Potomac river. This road followed substantially the old Indian trail and for many years known as the Monocacy road it was the great highway from the East to the South and Southwest. It was once the road that in 1755 the 150 wagons and 200 pack horses secured in Pennsylvania by the efforts of Benj. Franklin, then Post Master General, were transported to the camp at Frederick, where a part of the Army was collected preparatory

Note --	to the campaign which ended in the disastrous defeat of General Braddock. (It was at this camp that Washington and Franklin met for the first time, and where both were called in consultation with General Braddock and Governor Sharpe, and it was while the army was encamped here during April and May 1755 that Washington was appointed Aide-de-camp to General Braddock). Two men were enlisted from a harvest field near Emmitsburg for Braddocks army. Both were killed in the fight.
1st preacher	It was this route by which the Brittish prisoners captured during the Revolutionary war were taken to the barracks at Fredericktown, Md. In the year 1746 Rev. Michael Schlatter was sent by the Reformed Church of Holland as a missionary to the Dutch and Reformed settlers of Frederick County Maryland. He organized them into congregations in the various localities where they resided and to bring them into ecclesiastical {ecclesiastical} [selature] with the churches of the old world.
Glass Works	In what is now Urbana district Frederick Co. the first glass was manufactured in the U.S. by John Frederick Amelung from Bremen in 1784. Geo. Washington in a letter to Jefferson referred to these works says, "A factory of glass is established upon a large scale on the Monocacy river near Frederick in Maryland. I am informed it will produce this year glass of various kinds to the amount of ten thousand pounds." Amelung manufactured and presented in person to Washington two capacious goblets made of flint glass exhibiting

Item I have this recpt.	the Generals Coat of Arms. The story goes that Amelung armed with those goblets and dressed in full court costume proceeded to Mount Vernon. Crossing the lawn, he accosted a man in his shirt sleeves mounted on a ladder fixing the grape vines and was astonished to find that the person addressed was the great Washington himself. A large number of pieces of the glassware made by Amelung are still in the possession of the Masonic Lodge of Alexandria Va of which Washington was a member and its first Master. These works were moved to Baltimore in 1789 and occupied the site of the present glass works of Chs. J. Baker &amp; Sons on the South side of the Basin. In the year 1739 Mrs. W<sup>m</sup> H. Elder died four miles south of Emmitsburg. Her body was placed in a hollow log, the ends enclosed, and then buried. No saw mill, nor any other means of providing a covering for the body. This log was used. The houses were covered with straw or bark. Sept. 13th 1780 then Re<sup>cd</sup> of Mr. Richard Branner the sum of seventy nine pounds, twelve shillings and six pence for the purpose of hiring a substitute for my company of Militia to enlist during the War. Recd pamt. John Shields

George Smith the 2nd married Margaret Danner. He was the eldest of eleven children born at the Colonial Homestead, he inherited a portion of the land (see will). His portion is now owned by David and Joseph Ohler. One of the best farms in the county, where he lived until his death. His wife died one year four months and 18 days before him. He was visiting his daughter Mrs. Henry Wortz near Fairfield, Adams Co. Pa, when he was taken with dysentery, dying there. He and his wife sleep side by side in the Lutheran cemetery in Emmitsburg, Md. He was an exemplary man, stood high in the community. Dying he left an estate after raising his family with the comforts of the times, far in advance of that received from his fathers estate.

Jacob Rowe and Henry Wortz, his sons-in-law, were his Executors. His will can be found on page 246 of this record. After his death his farm was purchased by his son Joseph. At Josephs death it passed out of the family.

His children were,

Daniel	Susanna	Joseph
John	Lewis	Elizabeth
George

Daniel Smith son of George the 2nd married Ann Maria Lind May 20th 1800. He was born on the Homestead 3 miles east of Emmitsburg Md. remaining with his Father until he married, when he set up house keeping and lived on a farm near his Father, now owned by Mr. [Freeizer]. He had wagons on the road between Baltimore and Pittsburg. He moved from this farm in the spring of 1817 to a farm near Waynesboro, Pa. where he followed this avocation until May 18th 1825 when he concluded to go west, loading his family in a wagon he drove from Waynesboro to Canton Ohio purchasing a farm five miles North East of Canton. This farm has been in possession of him and his heirs from that time to the present. He and his wife spent their days on this farm, she dying in 1852 aged 69.9.1, he in 1856 age 81.7.7. They sleep the long sleep side by side five miles South East of New Berlin Ohio in Werstlers cemetery leaving a numerous family. Eleven children as follows

Eli Smith married Sarah Kreighbaum November 20th 1840. They had eleven children, eight sons and three daughters.

He was born in Frederick County Maryland, as eleven years old when his father went to Canton Ohio where he remained until old enough to go to his brother Samuel at Greentown and learn the tanning trade. While there he met his future wife, He moved to New Baltimore, Stark Co. Ohio and engaged in the Tanning business where he remained for a number of years. In the year 1854 he bought the old homestead in Plain Township consisting of 160 acres where he engaged in agriculture and where he reared his family. He is still the owner of the same farm. He is a member of the Lutheran Church as are his family also.

G.S. was born July 26 1780, his wife Nov. 22nd 1781. They had six children two sons and four daughters. He was a carpenter by trade. The Lutheran steeple in Emmitsburg Md. stands today as firm as the day he completed it in the year 1815 with prospect of its standing for centuries to come.

He changed his business to that of a merchant and did business in the storeroom corner of Main Street and Lutheran Church Alley, owned the house and store, living in the house. Later he purchased the property known as the Hyder lot corner of Square, a large brick house and store room combined, into which he moved in the Spring of 1817.

He was a jovial man, a very stout built man, few better developed men of the town. Like all others, his life must have an end. When, where, or how is only known after their demise. The subject of this narrative went fishing at night. He contracted a cold which settled on his lungs. He declined so perceptibly that his friends became alarmed. All efforts to cure proved of no avail. A few weeks prior to his death his daughter Margaret (afterward Mrs. H. Beam) accompanied him to Arendtsville Adams Co Pa to see a Physician there who had a reputation for pulminory diseases, but all to no avail, as he died Oct 30th 1817 was brought home, and buried from the house he so recently purchased, and expected to enter on a successful business career. Here is illustrated and fulfilled the saying, Man proposes, God disposes.

His widow purchased the property (now owned and occupied by Margaret Smith widow of his Son Eli) where she raised her family. The children as they grew to maturity married, all from this the root tree.

1. Eli	Eli married three times, first Francis Jefferson of Virginia a lineal decendent of the Jeffersons of which Thomas was a prominent one. His second wife was Sarah Gill of Virginia. His third Margaret I. Catron of Harbaughs Valley Md.
2. Margaret	married Henry Beam of Baltimore Co Md a miller who carried on his business there.
3. Lydia A.	married Michael Helman of Taneytown Md. but afterward moved to Emmitsburg Md. where they both died. He was engaged in the tin and stove business.
4. Catherine	married Rev Moses Kieffer of Chambersburg, Pa, a prominent divine in the Reformed Church stationed at Hagerstown Md, Reading Pa and President of Heidelberg College, Tiffin, Ohio where she died in Sept 1867 and is buried. Some years after her death he married Mrs. Barny of Sandusky, Ohio where he is buried.
5. Mary Magdolin {Magdalene	married Joseph Moritz who for a time was a merchant in Woodsboro Md. Later he came to Emmitsburg where he and his brother in law George L. Smith followed merchandising. He died during a cholera epidemic of 1853, age 39 years.
6. George L.	George L was a posthumous child born 28 days after his fathers death. He was a merchant most part of his life, remained a bachelor.

	Susanna Smith married Jacob Rowe October 25th 1811, a farmer. They lived three miles east of Emmitsburg Md. in prosperity all their days, although she was greatly afflicted with Rheumatism in the latter part of her life, yes helpless, being confined to her bed about five years dying at the age of 64 years. He lived to be 82 years old, dying of Pneumonia. Attended the funeral of a neighbor, the house was small and crowded, the doors open. He sat in the draught. His son told him he might catch cold setting there. He replied Oh no. But he did and died from it. Jacob Rowe was a descendent of an old family, his ancestors dating back as far as the Smiths. He was a retiring, modest gentleman, held in great respect by his family and all that knew him. They had six children, five daughters and one son,

Sketches from Memory of things that I have seen and heard.

1. George F.	Lewis Smith married twice, first to Elizabeth Eichelberger of Frederick County Md, second to Catharine Ann Baugher of Adams County, Pa. He married his first wife in 1810, his second in 1826. By the first he had six children, by the second, one daughter. He was a good man, meek and lowly, always exemplifying a Christian spirit. Morning and evening his voice ascended in prayer and praise at the family alter. It was said of him, truly, he was a good man. His first child was born 1812, extremely gifted and Sensitive, a heart overflowing with kindness and trust. At 21years he became a wreck never to be himself again, shattered nervous system. At that age, he became a partner in a wholesale dry good house in Baltimore, Md. the particulars as follows. His father was deceived by a life long friend and next door neighbor, Tobias Nixdorf. He had been a merchant in Georgetown where George F. had clerked for him for four years. Nixdorf went to Baltimore and entered into partnership with a Mr. Hager, the firm being Nixdorf &amp; Hager. Seeing that the firm was nearly bankrupt he induced Lewis Smith to take his place in the firm, he selling his interest in it to him at a high cash price. George F. was 21 years old. His father put him in the store, only to grapple with rascality and villianny {villainy} at that tender age. It was not long before Lewis Smith was startled by the news that Hager had decamped with all the cash funds, leaving George F the idol of all that knew him, with liabilities to a large amount. Thus in one hour he found all that he had amassed with

	much care swept away and the debts of a bankrupt firm to pay. The shock was too great on George F. He became despondent, he was advised to take a rest from business cares. He went to Texas to get away from this care and recuperate, where he spent the following years of his life, and died in 1853, is buried amongst strangers in that far away state. 2. Levi the second child was born in 1814 and died in 1826. 3. William Henry was born in 1816, he was a precocious child and youth. At 15 years he entered Pennsylvania College at Gettysburg. At 18 was a first graduate receiving the highest honors. At 21 was assistant pastor of the English Lutheran Church at Charleston, S.C. The congregation of this church was as educated and refined as any in the U.S. The Senior pastor was Rev. John Buchanan, D.D. the father in law of the celebrated ornithological John Audubon himself one of the first scientific men in the south. William married when in his 23rd year Catherine Carrie Trescot, the orphan daughter of Dr. John Lew Trescot a wealthy planter of St Johns parish near Charleston, S.C. Two daughters were left by him wealth unbounded but when they reached maturity they found themselves penniless, the guardian having squandered their wealth. Through their grandmother they were decended from one of the survivors of the massacre of St. Domingo. After a happy union of some years, she died suddenly of heart disease at Germantown, Pa, leaving a son William Henry

4th. Joshua 5. Lewis Martin	Trescot Smith. At the commencement of the Rebellion he Volunteered in one of the Maryland regiments, afterward enlisted in the 76 Penn Volunteers, was desperately wounded in the assault of Fort Fisher, and died at a hospital in New York, is buried at Greenwood Cemetery, New York City. The death of William's wife prostrated him so much that for six weeks he was confined to his bed with brain fever, and when he arose he was a complete wreck in body and mind. At the advice of his physician he went to Europe. This was in 1853 where he died in 1863. His was a mind of first order. He had paid especial attention to Electricity and galvanism and his researches and experiments place him at the head of his day on these subjects. In the transactions of the Royal Society of Great Brittan for 1854 &amp; 1855 honorable mention is made of his discoveries and researches. was born 1818, died 1819. was born 1820, married Frannie Beeler of Jefferson County, Virginia. She was born 1836, a graduate of Winchester School of Frederick City, Md, married in her 19th year. Lewis M. was a clerk in the War Department at Washington D.C. for over 27 years. One day in the midst of his daily work the Summons came, and instantly his Spirit quit the body and returned to the source from whence it came. He was a faithful, efficient man. So much so, that during the changes

They had one child, a daughter. Born 1828. She married Rev J. George Butler and died in 1862. She was a woman of rare accomplishments, could converse in several languages and her general knowledge was approved. She filled her position as the wife of a minister with acceptance. She left three children, Ellen, William and Charles. Rev. J. Patent Maryland State, Frederick County.

Absolute Lord and propriety of the province of Maryland and Avalon Lord Baron of Baltimore zta.

To all persons to whom these presents shall come. Greeting, In Our Lord God Everlasting.

Know Ye that Whereas George Smith of Frederick County by his humble position to our agents for management of Land affairs within his province, did set forth that he had on the 21st day of March Anna Domini, Seventeen hundred and forty six granted him by patent [order] the great Seal of this province a tract or parcel of Land called Cattail Branch lying and being in Frederick County, aforesaid containing One hundred Acres which patent was granted to him the 21st day of March 1746, for which he has paid and satisfied our present agent. Re General for our use the sum of __((left blank))__

Caution for the same according to Charles Lord Baron of Baltimore. Our Great Grand Father of noble memory, his instruction to Charles Carroll Esquire his then agent bearing date at London the twelfth day of September Seventeen hundred and twelve and registered in Our Secreterys Office of Our Said province together with a paragraph of our instruction bearing date at London the 21st day of March Seventeen hundred and forty Six, and registered in Our Land Office. We do therefore, hereby grant and confirm with him the Said George Smith all that the aforesaid tract or parcel of Land now Surveyed and called Cattail branch Containing One hundred acres more or less according to the certificate

	X Royal Mine accepted ((See line 4)) of Survey thereof taken and returned with Our Land Office bearing date the 21st day of March Seventeen Hundred and forty Six, and together with all rights, profits benefits and privileges therewith belonging ((Inserted between lines &gt;&gt;))X Royal Mines above to have and hold the Same unto him the Said George Smith, his Heirs and assigns forever, to be holden of us and Our Heirs, as of our Manor of Calverton in fee and Common Soceage {Socage} by fealty only, for all manner of Services Yielding and paying therefore Yearly unto us and our Heirs at our receipt at our City of St Mary's at the two most Usual feasts in the Year. First: the feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and Saint Michael the Arch Angel, by even and equal portion, the rent of four Shillings in Silver of Gold, and a fine upon every alienation of the Said land or any part or parcel thereof in such Commodities as We and our Heirs or Such Officer or Offices as Shall be appointed by us and our Heirs from time to time to Collect and receive the Same. Shall accept in discharge thereof at the choice of us and our Heirs or such Officer or Offices aforesaid, provided that if the Said Sum for a fine for alienation shall not be paid unto us and our Heirs or Such Officer or Offices aforesaid before alienation and the Said alienation centered upon record either in the Provincial Court, or County Court, Where the parcel of land lieth within one month next after alienation, then the Said alienation to be void and of no effect over

given under our great Seal of our Said province of Maryland this 21st day of March Anno Domini Seventeen hundred and forty six.

Witness one trusty and well beloved Horatio Sharpe Esquire Lieutenant General and Chief govenor of our said province of Maryland, Chancellor and Keeper of the great Seal thereof.

A resurvey on Cattail Branch of a tract containing 498 acres for George Smith August 11th 1752 and patented to him April 8th 1754.

The patent would be same as foregoing one.

The "Alienation fine" was the fee to be paid for the Sale or transfer of the tract or any part therof.

This rental was paid to the agents of the proprieties until the Revolutionary War when it ceased and a fee simple title was acquired by merely having the land resurveyed and a record made of the same.

who inherited the same on farm as per will. 1790
by J. Williams

Married Catharine Fuss	Christian Smith, Son of George 1st &amp; Christiana. By inheritance from his father (see will) he was the possessor of that part of the original tract of land that had the buildings on erected by his father. After his fathers death 1793 he built a long log house one story along the new road. The present road prior to his time, the road was north about quarter of a mile. Here he live until 1804 when he sold his farm 139 ¼ acres to Robert Flemming for 400 pounds Here I loose sight of him although his descendants can be traced as follows. His daughter Mary married John Geyer in 1801 or 1802 and moved to Mercersburg, Pa. where he lived and died, After the sale of the farm by Christian, reports as follows: the family consisting of a second daughter Catharine and a son, Joseph, went to Mercersburg. Also Catharine married John McCune and moved to Lexington, Ohio. Joseph learned chair making in Chambersburg and moved to Mt. Carroll, Illinois. Christian Smith was a surveyor as well as a farmer, The deed he made of his farm in 1804 to R. Flemming is written most beautifully by himself. The Geyers think he died at Emmitsburg. Others think he went to Mercersburg and died there. No graves are marked there for him of wife.

	Aug. 23 - 1823 Will of George Smith the 2nd In the name of God Amen. I George Smith of Frederick County in the State of Maryland, living in tolerable health, health of body and of Sound and disposing mind, memory, and understanding, considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof and being desirous of Settling up my worldly affairs, and thereby being the better prepared to leave this world, when it shall please Almighty God to call me hence, Do therefore make and publish, this my last will and Testament in manner and form following. That is to Say. First and principally I commit my Soul to God, who gave it, and my body to the Earth, to be buried at the discretion of my Executors, hereinafter named, and after my debts and funeral expenses are paid, I give and bequeath and direct as follows. Item. That is to Say. First my beloved Margaret I give and bequeath, One third part of the net proceeds of all my personal property without condition, and a lifetime estate in one third part of my real estate. I will and direct that all my estate real and personal and mixed (not otherwise disposed of by this Will) be Sold by the Executors herein after named, the personal or moveable part thereof at public Vendue, So soon after my death as will be convenient, and the real Estate, Subject to my wifes third as aforesaid, Should She be alive at the time, either at private or public Sale, and on Such terms as my Executors shall think advisable, and most advantageous to all Concerned, at any time not exceeding five years next after my death, and I hereby authorize and empower my Executors to make and execute Such Deeds and conveyances in the Law, as shall be necessary for confirming the Same, Subject to my Wifes thirds, should She be living, to the purchaser thereof, and when Such arrangements Shall be made by my Executors as will enable them to proceed to a distribution among the Heirs of my Estate, I order and direct, that the net proceeds after my wifes part of the personal Estate is taken out be applied as follows. Viz to my Son Daniel one part, to my daughter Susanna Wife of Jacob Rowe one part, to my Son Lewis One part, to my Son Joseph one part, to my daughter Elizabeth Wife of Henry Wortz one part, and to the Heirs of my late Son George one part, to be paid by Executors to the aforesaid Heirs of my Son George in manner and form following to wit—one sixth part thereof to the eldest of the Heirs of my aforesaid late Son George, at the time my Executors Shall have Sold my real Estate, one Sixth part thereof in one year thereafter to the next Eldest of the aforesaid children, and So on annually to the eldest until the whole of the aforesaid Share Shall have been distributed among them. Lastly I do hereby Constitute and appoint my two Sons in Law Jacob Rowe and Henry Wortz Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling all former Wills by me heretofore made, ratifying and confirming this and none other, to be my last Will and testament.

In witness whereof I have herewith Set my hand and affixed my Seal, the fifth day of December in the Year of our Lord, One thousand Eight hundred and Twenty.
